

CELEBRATE SUCCESS

Activity overview: The purpose of this handout is to brainstorm and record three ways that children's successful problem solving skills can be celebrated. An example of one way might be at circle time, to talk about a problem that occurred during play time. Publicly recognize the children and how they solved the problem.

Directions: Complete the chart with ideas to celebrate children's success in problem solving.

Three ideas:

