

PLANNING FOR MAKE-BELIEVE PLAY

Use this tool with education staff to help them plan for make-believe play.

For Education Staff: If there is more than one classroom at your center, consider having teachers plan together or share their plans to create a rich bank of play topics and plans.

For Home Visitors: Help home visitors plan make-believe play opportunities during socializations or use this sheet with families to support make-believe play in the home.

CURRICULUM UNIT:	MAKE-BELIEVE PLAY TOPIC:
Key Topic-Related Vocabulary:
Books (Fiction):	Books (Non-Fiction):
Guest Speaker(s):	Virtual/Real Field Trips:
Roles & Speech Ideas:

Scenario Ideas (Inside):	Scenario Ideas (Outside):
Props to Collect/Make:	Materials Needed for Props:
Language and Literacy Components & Authentic Learning Opportunities:
Math Components & Authentic Learning Opportunities:
Science Components & Authentic Learning Opportunities:

Social and Emotional Components & Authentic Learning Opportunities:

Approaches to Learning Components & Authentic Learning Opportunities:

Opportunities for Family Engagement:

Considerations for Children Who Are Dual Language or Tribal Language Learners:

Considerations for Children with Suspected Delays or Diagnosed Disabilities:

