

Drawing Rainbows Fall and Spring – Handout 1

It's the end of the year and Ms. Concha is going through each child's yearly portfolio. She needs to complete a developmental checklist for each child in her class and provide evidence for the ratings she assigns. She is flipping through the portfolios to give her concrete examples to use to explain her scoring. She finds the following pictures for Esmeralda.

October 9th, Esmeralda's rainbow. Esmeralda said, "My rainbow has the red and blue."

March 10, Esmeralda said, "On Saturday, my mom and me went to the lake and there was a rainbow. It was in the sky. That's me over there and that's my mom."
