

Reasoning and Problem-Solving, Preschool, Video 1

Devin: Hey, Teacher. Why that green? Why this green?

Teacher: That's a wonderful question.

Boy: Hey, look it. No paint in here.

Teacher: I know. No color in here. And Devin had a question. How did he make green?

Boy: Use this one, this one, and this one.

Devin: Yeah. Just make green!

Teacher: How did he make it?

Devin: This and this and that.

Teacher: Mm. Different colors. Did you put some different colors in it? Okay, let's see. So, I'll try.

Boy: Can we have yellow?

Teacher: I'm gonna put some yellow on this page. Did you use yellow, Devin?

Devin: No, just blue and red.

Teacher: Oh, blue and red. Okay, so let's see.

Devin: I mixed that.

Teacher: Here's blue.

Devin: I mixed this. I mixed it.

Teacher: Okay, check it out.

Devin: I mixed this.

Teacher: You did it, too, huh?

Devin: I mixed this.

Teacher: I'm gonna do it right here. Here's red. Okay? And here is some blue. Now let's see what happens in the middle.

Boy: In the middle?

Devin: Can you do this?

Teacher: Yeah, what happened?

Boy: Purple!

Teacher: Purple. That's just like Devin made.

Devin: Yeah!

Boy: How about yellow? Try yellow. Try yellow with -- with -- with green. Try with green.

Teacher: Okay, so here's yellow.

Boy: And the -- And red.

Teacher: Which one's green?

Boy: No, red.

Teacher: Oh, so yellow and red?

Boy: Uh-huh.

Devin: Yeah. Try that.

Boy: And then let's see what happens.

Teacher: See what happens.

Boy: Orange!

Teacher: Orange.
