

Comprehension and Text Structure: Preschooler

Teacher: "The bear shuddered, and the bear trembled, and the bear rumbled, and the bear grumbled, and the bear woke up." How can you tell the bear's awake?

Boy: Because his eyes are open.

Teacher: His eyes opened. What do you think's gonna happen next?

Girl: He's going to eat.

Teacher: He's going to eat who?

Boy: The mouse.

Girl: Everybody.

Teacher: He's going to eat everybody?

Girl: Probably.

Teacher: Are you ready to find out?

Boy: Yeah.

Girl: He won't eat the fox.

Teacher: "And he was very angry, and he was hungry. And he looked around and he saw the mouse, and he saw the squirrel, and he saw the fox, and he saw the badger, and he saw the hare, and then he opened his huge bear mouth." Open your bear mouth big.
