

Engaging Fathers: Arrival at Family Child Care

Teacher: Good morning.

Bruce: Good morning.

Teacher: Hey, Connor. You got a snack? How are you this morning, Bruce?

Bruce: Pretty good. How's it going?

Teacher: Good. Hey, Parker.

Bruce: Take your shoes off.

Teacher: Did you bring your monster trucks?

Parker: Yeah.

Teacher: Yeah. You got your coat, Parker. You need some help?

Bruce: Connor had – or Parker had cereal this morning. He was hungry.

Teacher: Okay.

Bruce: So...

Teacher: How did batting practice go last night?

Bruce: I couldn't find the whiffle balls.

Teacher: Oh, man.

Bruce: Do you want us to just use this red pen?

Teacher: That's fine.

Bruce: Okay.

Teacher: 4:30.

Bruce: All right. Have fun.

Teacher: Have a good day, Bruce.

Bruce: Bye, Chase.

Teacher: Connor, are you going to come say goodbye to Dad?

Connor: Bye, Daddy.

Bruce: Bye, buddy. Have a good day at school. Hey, you share your trucks, okay?

Teacher: Bye.
